The first grants in the Shawshin wilderness were issued to Governor Winthrop and Lt. Governor Dudley in 1638. Several other large grants to important proprietors of Cambridge followed making the Shawshin wilderness (Billerica) part of Cambridge. As more and more families settled on these grants, the need to self-govern became apparent. After a series of petitions to the court and other negotiations the Town of Billerica was established in 1655. The resulting document, "Billerica: Deed of Their Town from Cambridge Proprietors" was created. It is commonly referred to as "The Great Deed." This project would preserve a 364 year old document.
