Project Summary: Please provide a brief description of the project.
“Generations in Motion” aims to rehabilitate and modernize the Town’s 23-year-old BMX facility. This initiative will address safety and accessibility improvements, enhance drainage and surface conditions, and expand youth coaching and recreational programming. The project preserves a long-standing community asset while aligning with the Town of Billerica’s goals for recreation, youth engagement, and public space revitalization. These improvements will ensure the facility remains a safe, inclusive, and sustainable resource for future generations.
